WINNERS OF THE MEDAL OF HONOR AND THE BRITISH DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

Sergeants Alan Louis Eggers and John C. Latham, Machine Gun Co., 107th Infantry— conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity, above and beyond the call of duty, in action with the enemy near Le Catelet, France, Sept. 29, 1918. Becoming separated from their platoons by a smoke barrage, Sergt. Latham, Sergt. Alan Louis Eggers, and Corporal Thomas E. O'Shea took cover in a shell hole, well within the enemy's lines. Upon hearing a call for help from an American tank, which had become disabled thirty yards from them, the three soldiers left their shelter and moved toward the tank, under heavy fire from German machine guns and trench mortars. In crossing the fire-swept area Corporal O'Shea was mortally wounded, but his companions, undeterred, proceeded to the tank, rescued a wounded officer, and assisted two soldiers to cover in the rear of a nearby trench. Sergt. Latham and Sergt. Eggers then returned to the tank in the face of violent fire, dismounted a Hotchkiss gun and took it to where the wounded men were, firing off the enemy all day by effective use of the gun, and later bringing it, with the wounded men, back to our lines under cover of darkness.

INDIVIDUAL RECORD OF DECORATIONS AND CITATIONS
To Be Filed With Personal Military Record

3-18-25

GDG

The following is a statement showing decorations awarded in the case of the above named, together with the citations pertaining thereto, compiled from the records on file in The Adjutant General's Office:

Awarded silver life-saving medal by the Treasury Department in recognition of the gallant conduct displayed by him in rescuing a man from drowning in the Chattahoochee river, June 21, 1924

Feringa, Peter A., 1212823, private, Medical Detachment, 107th Infantry, 27th Division.
British Military Medal, List No. 35, dated January 31, 1919, British War Office.

Details of the acts of gallantry performed:

"During the operations against the Hindenburg line, east of Ronssoy, on September 28th, 1918, Pvt. Feringa was wounded by a high explosive shell which exploded in the midst of the platoon to which he was assigned. Six of his comrades were killed and 16 others were wounded. Upon regaining consciousness, he disregarded personal danger, and in spite of the fact that he was painfully wounded and suffering severely, he remained and dressed the wounds of his injured comrades and assisted in the evacuation, after which he reported for treatment himself."

Private Peter A. Feringa (1,212,823) San. Det. 107th Infantry

For gallantry and devotion to duty during the battle of the HINDENBURG LINE, France, Sept. 28, 1918. A high explosive shell having burst among the platoon to which he was assigned, killing six and wounding sixteen, among the latter being Private Feringa, he upon regaining consciousness, in total disregard of self and although painfully wounded, remained and dressed the wounds of his comrades, later being himself evacuated to a hospital in the rear.

Capt Clinton Earle Fisk

After an early drill the Company
... marched to Quarters, where
... and Mrs. Fisk, father and
... of the Captain, together with
... Fisk his widow and other mem-
... of his immediate family were ... waiting with many of the Company was honored, respected and beloved by Small wonder that a heavy gloom was cast upon the entire Regiment when he met his death on that fateful day.

Many of the Veterans and a few of us in the present Company had the honor to serve in the past with and under Capt. Fisk. To us, all that Maj.
Brady said was well known and known to be without gainsay. Let the younger and newer members take to heart every word spoken of Capt. Fisk, let them make him their example of the perfect soldier and true man, and they themselves cannot help being better men,— men of the calibre that goes to make better soldiers, thereby keeping up the standing of our Company of which Capt. Fisk was so long a member and for which he did so much good—even to the giving of his life.

Capt. Kenny on behalf of the Company responded with a few words accepting the guardianship of the life-like portrait of Capt. Fisk which was placed in our keeping by the Veterans who had all to do with having it painted.

After the singing of "America" the Company was dismissed.
